
Marriott signs up Hospitality Graduate Recruitment (h-g-r) to promote its rebranded graduate management programme M!Voyage

Swiss-based company Hospitality Graduate Recruitment (h-g-r) has been contracted to work with Marriott to recruit for their newly branded M!Voyage Programme for UK & Ireland, and Middle East & Africa.

Marriott will be taking on up to 110 graduates in 2007.

HGR-Marriott contract valid from March-December 2007, where we will market for Marriott their M!Voyage to more than 100 hotel schools and hospitality universities internationally.

The M!Voyage Programme is designed for talented, ambitious, self motivated individuals who aspire to become leaders within Marriott international. It is a 24 month structure training programme. The application process is open now. Details can be found on the h-g-r website.

Managing Director Mr Jeff N Ross states "Just last week h-g-r partnered with our 100th hotel school, and this unique and growing network makes us an ideal company to promote quality hospitality graduate programmes such as the Marriott M!Voyage programme. We are proud to have this alliance".

Mr Chris Dunn, Regional Director of Talent Management UKIMEA, Marriott Hotels International Limited, states "We are delighted to be working in partnership with Hospitality Graduate Recruitment, and look forward to recruiting Marriott managers of the future via this source".
