

Luzern, Switzerland - 6. December 2007

HOSPITALITY GRADUATE RECRUITMENT PROUDLY EXPANDS TEAM BY USING ITS OWN RECRUITMENT WEBSITE!

Swiss-based recruitment firm Hospitality Graduate Recruitment has successfully proven the efficiency of its own product and service by recruiting 2 interns from its own talent pool!

Managing Director Mr Jeff Ross comments "I am delighted to welcome Liubov and Leo into our multicultural team, and I am convinced they will have a busy and fun time within our company. Their appointments simply prove that our product works, and that h-g-r is a superb vehicle for resourcing talented, well educated and motivated hospitality graduates and undergraduates. Business is booming, and for this reason we decided to recruit two interns to help us here in our head office in Luzern".

Liubov Bystrova, Russian national, is currently a student working towards Bachelor of Business Administration Degree with a dual major in Management and Hotel, Restaurant and Resort Management in Northwood University Campus located in Montreux. Being very interested in the Hospitality industry, she has graduated from the Swiss Hotel Management School with Honours Degree in International Hotel Management in the year 2007. Liubov speaks fluent Russian, English and French, and is about to take on the German language challenge!

Leo Lindell, Finnish national, recently graduated from Ecole Hôtelière de Lausanne (EHL) with a BSc. in International Hospitality Management. He made his debut in the industry through a practical internship at the Mecca Café Bar & Restaurant Chancery in Auckland, New Zealand. He then went on to work as Assistant Purchasing Manager at Baglioni Hotel London and Student Affairs Assistant at EHL. Raised in Switzerland and New Zealand, Leo has always felt most at ease in multicultural environments and has a thirst for exploration. His flare for languages has made him fluent in English, Finnish and German, with conversational French and Italian. Leo has always been fascinated with the hospitality and tourism industries and their dynamic nature.

© 2007 Hospitality Graduate Recruitment