HGR signs deal to service over 100 HYATT Hotels

HGR (Hospitality Graduate Recruitment, www.h-g-r.com, Luzern, Switzerland) has just secured its first global contract with leading hotel group Hyatt International. The contract which came into effect last month will see the Swiss based recruitment consultancy supporting over 110 hotels with their recruitment strategies.

For the next twelve months, HR departments across Hyatt International hotels in Europe, Middle East, Asia, Africa and South America will have unlimited access to HGR's comprehensive on-line database. The database will help Hyatt's HR staff source and recruit suitable hospitality graduates and undergraduates for a variety of entry level, trainee, supervisory and junior management positions. There is also a facility by which job opportunities can be posted.

HGR Managing Director Mr Jeff Ross stated "with this alliance, Hyatt International has clearly thrown down the gauntlet to other hotel chains by demonstrating their focus upon innovative and proactive recruitment strategy. With the expansion that is happening in their group, Hyatt International has clearly recognised the importance of recruiting young, educated talent. HGR is delighted to be a key recruitment channel for Hyatt International".

HGR works with over 150 global hospitality management schools and universities. The service not only helps employers search and screen candidates for suitability and potential availability but enables students and alumni to find quickly and easily vacancies and training opportunities within the hospitality industry.

Hyatt International Corporation's VP Human Resources, Katie Carter, stated "Attracting, retaining and developing key talent in our company continues to be a key strategic issue for us as we face the anticipated growth over the next three to five years and beyond. As part of our global recruitment efforts, we have recently partnered with Hospitality Graduate Recruitment (HGR) as a resource to assist us in identifying talent for both our entry and junior management level positions. This partnership gives us in-depth access to HGR's global Curriculum Vitae database of highly talented hospitality graduates and undergraduates".
