Ranking and Accreditation

Among our institutions are Glion Institute of Higher Education and Les Roches International School of Hotel Management in Switzerland which have been ranked by hiring managers among the top three hotel management schools in the world for an international career (TNS, global survey, UK, 2007).

Our institutions are fully accredited, hence ensuring quality programs delivered to all our students.

Swiss style model of education

Our schools follow a Swiss Hospitality Education Model. This model, originally conceived in partnership with Hôtelleriesuisse in Switzerland, balances theoretical classes with craft-based learning on campus. While each school has its own specialized approach, Laureate Hospitality Education is constantly ensuring that its curricula, teaching methodology and student life style fully develop all the appropriate skills to prepare graduates for their careers and to become tomorrow's industry leaders.

Breadth of programs

With a choice of 8 schools, Laureate offers many education pathways to match your personal and professional goals. You can be sure to find the perfect profile matching your needs and interest. From short programs to Bachelor & Master degree with many different specializations, you will have access to a wide array of undergraduate, postgraduate and master studies. All programs emphasize the development of generic thinking skills, the understanding of contemporary management theory and the integration of theory and practice.
