LRG-University of Applied Sciences is the first private university of applied sciences in Switzerland in the field of Hospitality Management. Using the resources and facilities of 2 reputed Hotel Management schools, Glion Institute of Higher Education and Les Roches International School of Hotel Management, students benefit from their long educational experience and know-how.

Accreditation & Programs

LRG-UAS is fully authorized by the Swiss Federal Authorities. Its Bachelor of Science meets European Bologna standards and allows students transfer or carry on studies in other European universities, or anywhere in the world.

The Bachelor of Science In Hospitality Management is a 4 year degree program that offers students the possibility to choose between two different specializations:

- International Hospitality Management (Bulle campus)
- Food, Beverage and Operations Management (Bluche Campus)

Location

LRG-UAS is based on two different campuses depending on the specialization chosen.

The first one is in Bulle, in the heart of the Gruyère region, famous for its tourism, chocolate and cheese of the same name. The second one is in Bluche, a charming village overlooking the Rhône Valley and a few minutes drive from the famous resort of Crans-Montana.

Coming from over 90 countries, students live and learn in a unique environment that shape them to become professionals of the trade and to enter their career with confidence and life long lasting skills.

Intakes

Intakes are twice a year in January / February or in July / August.

Upcoming events

Open Days:

- 16th April & September/October 2010 (Bluche campus)
