SHMS is Switzerland's largest English speaking Hotel Management School. It offers a wide range of world-class academic programmes for undergraduates and postgraduates in Hospitality and Events Management. The Swiss Diploma and Higher Diploma combine theoretical and practical modules and include two internship placements where students gain valuable industry experience.

The BA (hons.) Degree in Hospitality or Events Management, is awarded by the University of Derby (UK), recently ranked by the Times Higher Education Supplement amongst the top five British Universities for hospitality and tourism education. For graduates, SHMS offers a Master's degree in Hospitality Management, an Online Master's in International Hospitality Management and a Master of International Business and Hotel, Resort and Spa Management as well as a variety of exciting postgraduate courses, recognizing the strong demand in the industry for highly educated professionals.

The two SHMS campuses in Caux and Leysin welcome students from over 65 nationalities making student life a truly international experience. Caux is a unique location close to the lively city of Montreux. The campus is located in the historic Caux Palace. Leysin is an international ski resort providing students with a wide range of recreational and sporting activities. The campus in Leysin offers modern facilities.

As a member of the Swiss Education Group, SHMS is 100% Swiss owned ensuring that its students receive top quality education with a distinctive Swiss style that is renowned worldwide.

SHMS offers two intakes each year in February and September. For students who need to improve their English language skills prior to beginning the academic year, the school provides an English Foundation programme.
